Description

A charming and exceptionally bright two-bedroom flat offering a spacious lounge/diner, a well appointed separate kitchen with generous storage, and a modern bathroom. Set within Waterlow Court, a gated development of remarkable historical significance, the property forms part of an architecturally important enclave designed in 1904 by renowned Arts and Crafts architect M.H. Baillie Scott. The result is a home rich in character, heritage, and timeless appeal.

Residents enjoy beautifully maintained communal gardens, enhancing the sense of tranquillity and the strong community spirit that defines Waterlow Court. The location is equally impressive, positioned within easy reach of Golders Green Underground Station and the Heath Extension, providing an ideal blend of convenience, greenery, and peaceful living.
