We are delighted to offer for auction this exceptional two-bedroom mid-terrace property, ideally located within the historic town of Ruthin and enjoying attractive views towards Ruthin Castle.

The property has undergone a comprehensive back-to-brick renovation and has been to a high standard throughout, creating a stylish, modern and low-maintenance home ready for immediate occupation. Works completed include new electrics, plumbing, a full central heating system with new boiler, a contemporary fitted kitchen, and a newly installed bathroom.

Further improvements include new flooring throughout, new internal doors, and a superb rear sunroom extension, providing additional living space filled with natural light. The property also benefits from a brand-new, never-used log burner, adding both warmth and character.

Externally, the property offers allocated parking, a valuable feature for a home in this central location. The combination of its turn-key condition, quality, and desirable historic setting makes it an ideal purchase for owner occupiers, second-home buyers, or investors seeking a ready-to-let opportunity with minimal ongoing costs. This impressive home successfully blends period charm with modern living and is expected to attract strong interest.
