Description

An exceptional two-bedroom apartment set within the prestigious Bewick House, an elegant Grade II listed building occupying a prime city-centre position, moments from Newcastle Central Station and the very best the city has to offer.

The apartment provides generous and beautifully proportioned accommodation, featuring two well-sized bedrooms and a stunning open-plan living space that perfectly complements modern city living. Striking original windows flood the interior with natural light while framing impressive panoramic views across the city centre, creating a truly unique and atmospheric home.

Combining period character with contemporary style, this outstanding property is ideally suited to owner-occupiers and those seeking a high-quality city residence in one of Newcastle's most desirable and convenient locations.

Early viewing is considered essential to fully appreciate the space, character, and enviable setting of this impressive apartment.
