Description

Recently refurbished, this beautifully restored two bedroomed mid terrace house offers fantastic accommodation featuring UPVC double glazing, plantation shutters to the lounge, character inglenook style fire places, gas central heating, off road parking, gardens front and rear to name a few. The location is ideal for access to local amenities and Low Fell town centre a short drive or bus ride away. In addition road links are easy for commuting with the A1M close to hand.

The accommodation comprises an entrance lobby with mosaic floor tiling, entrance hall, lounge with wood burning stove, dining room, kitchen, utility room, two generous bedrooms, bathroom and a loft with ladders to a boarded loft with lighting.

This is a great example of a refurbishment in keeping with the character of the property and needs to be viewed to be appreciated
